Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Helmuth and Dorothy Neuharth exchanged their wedding vows on June 15, 1933, in Wessington Springs, South Dakota, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, Helmuth and Dorothy lived in Wessington Springs, where they raised their three daughters, Joan, Sandra and Janelle, and now enjoy spending time with their six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, The newly-wed couple of 70 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Helmuth enjoys woodworking, and Dorothy does crocheting and various crafts, and they both enjoy time with family and friends; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Helmuth and Dorothy have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 15, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Seventh of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
